The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

An Act establishing a sick leave bank for Frank J. Servello, an employee of the executive office of public safety and security.

Whereas, The deferred operation for this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is forthwith to make to establish a sick leave bank for a certain employee of the executive office of public safety and security, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Notwithstanding any general or special law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the executive office of public safety and security shall establish a sick leave bank for Frank J.

Servello, an employee of the executive office of public safety and security. Any employee of the executive office of public safety and security may voluntarily contribute 1 or more sick, personal or vacation days to the sick leave bank for use by Frank J. Servello. Whenever Frank J. Servello

6 terminates employment with the executive office of public safety and security or requests to extended illness leave bank. Sick leave bank days shall not be used for absences unrelated to the
